

Workshop for Group Family/Family Child Care Professionals
Promoting Early Language and Literacy in Infants, Toddlers & Two's

Saturday, July 18, 2009

Time: 9:00 am – 1:00 pm

Location: Child Care Inc., 322 Eighth Ave, 4th floor, (Entrance near corner of West 26th St.), NYC, 10001

Agenda

Part I: The Importance of Relationships in Early Language & Literacy

- A. The Effects of Early Relationships on Brain Development
- B. Importance of Attachment to Early Learning & School Readiness
- C. Strong Caregiver-Child Relationships Support Overall Development

Part II: Language Development

- A. Overview of Language Development Milestones (0 – 3 yrs.) & Red Flags
- B. Early language and literacy behaviors – ways to share books
- C. Families as Partners in Supporting Language and Early Literacy

Mid-morning break (10 min)

Part III: Literacy Behaviors & Strategies

- A. Early Language & Literacy Behaviors – Creating meaningful experiences & sharing books
- B. Families as Partners in Supporting Language and Early Literacy

Presented by: Julia Travers, Infant Toddler Specialist, Child Care Inc.

Transportation: E or C train to 23rd St. @ 8th Ave, # 1 local train to 28th St. stop

F train to 23rd @ 6th Ave stop

Click Here for MTA Information

If you have additional questions or inquiries, please contact Inzzia Hooks, at 212-929-7604 ext. 3028 or email ihooks@childcareinc.org . You may also visit www.babystepsnyc.org for additional updates.